

Perrysburg Journal

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING BY OBLINGER & TIMMONS.

TERMS.—One copy, one year, $2; 5 months, $1; 3 months, 50¢. Invariably in advance.

LOCAL MATTERS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Hartford Fire Insurance Statement, Times for Holding Courts for 1868, Agents Wanted—W. H. & Co., Co. of Ins. of America, Boston, Stetzel and Money Lost—Willis Gay, Petition for Divorce—J. K. J. M. Horn.

We have another slate of this week.

On Tuesday next the Board of School Examiners hold their session for the examination of applicants to teachers, at this place.

Read the Annual Statement of the old and reliable Hartford Assurance Company, represented in this county by A. J. GARDNER, Esq., of Greenfield, and GEORGE STRAIN, Esq., of Perrysburg, Ohio. No better Company in the United States.

CAR ON FIRE.—On Thursday morning of last week, the express car of the 3 o'clock A. M. train took fire a short distance south of this place, and it became necessary to detach it from the passenger coaches, and connect to this station, and so pass the flames. The damage was but slight.

Yankee Robinson.—This widely popular show will visit Perrysburg next Wednesday for the purpose of exhibiting his colossal combination of shows—a grand variety of the largest exhibits, including on the stage, and the audience will be the influence of interesting lectures on the physical, intellectual, social, and moral condition of men. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Teachers' Certificates.

The Board of Examiners for Wood County, Ohio, held their examination of Teachers at Perrysburg, on Thursday, September 13, 1868. The following is the result:

No. of Name of No. of Applicant. Birth. Months. Age/
of Child.

1. Miss Mary C. Fife 12

2. Mr. J. W. Eberle 14

3. Mr. C. P. Fox 15

4. Miss M. Winklepleck 12

5. Mr. J. W. Eberle 17

6. Mr. John Patterson 12

7. Mr. George Young 18

8. Mr. George W. Callin 6

9. Miss Mary Dunphy 6

10. Mr. John Patterson 21

11. Miss Mary E. Carr 6

12. Mr. George A. Avery 22

13. Mr. George A. Avery 18

Total number of applicants 16

Age, 2, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18.

Certificates granted as follows: Fourth class, 6 months—7; third class, 12 months—3; second class, 18 months—1. Total, 11.

D. A. AVERY, Reader of the Board.

September 16, 1868.

The Democratic Ballot.—The Committee was about two weeks ago called on last Tues. day to see the General DUNHILL WARD and Hon. E. B. SHELDEN. There was a good sprinking of Republicans as well as ladies in the audience, which gave the meeting an air of respectability. The speakers were all of them, without exception, all the friends of virtue, truth, honesty, righteously and soberness. General WARD certainly based the intelligence of his audience on a very low grade of education, and in the course of the United States had robbed the Southern States of their constitutions, or when he told them that the Federal Government entreated them to do so, he did so. The speakers were all of them, and the amount of money that had been used by the Radical party to carry on the Government, since they had been in power, but they were very careful not to mention the little difference that the treasure thus lavished was employed to preserve our existence as a nation against a Democratic rebellion. For the bold and unscrupulous, living, command us as a rampant, unscrupulous Democratic stepper.

A Democratic Colloquy.

The following conversation was overheard the other evening between two dyed-in-the-wool Democrats, whom we shall designate as "Terrible" and "Unterified":

"Terrible," say, don't you see that poll and Unterified—Yes, what's that?

"Terrible," I tell you, the desecration to pay for men that rate such as that. Look over the other corner, on that ash pole. That's the kind of flag I want, with all the stars and stripes."

"U—T—that's what's that—a d—d rebel rag, and I don't like it."

"U—That's just one rebel about it; it's a Seymour and Blair banner; we'll take it up everywhere."

"U—Don't care if they do, I say it's a d—d rebel rag—just what you said at home South."

"U—T—Some Black Republican has just been stoning you. That flag's all right."

"Right—I tell you, the desecration to pay for men that rate such as that. Look over the other corner, on that ash pole. That's the kind of flag I want, with all the stars and stripes."

"U—T—that's what's that? Well, ain't ours right?"

"U—Right! They are, and we're stars and dots—just what I tell you I won't go that. Why they know it all over the country, and State, and it's turning over lots of money for us to do, but they were very careful not to mention the little difference that the treasure thus lavished was employed to preserve our existence as a nation against a Democratic rebellion. For the bold and unscrupulous, living, command us as a rampant, unscrupulous Democratic stepper."

Patent Medicine.

The following conversation was overheard the other evening between two dyed-in-the-wool Democrats, whom we shall designate as "Terrible" and "Unterified":

"Terrible," say, don't you see that poll and Unterified—Yes, what's that?

"Terrible," I tell you, the desecration to pay for men that rate such as that. Look over the other corner, on that ash pole. That's the kind of flag I want, with all the stars and stripes."

"U—T—that's what's that—a d—d rebel rag, and I don't like it."

"U—That's just one rebel about it; it's a Seymour and Blair banner; we'll take it up everywhere."

"U—Don't care if they do, I say it's a d—d rebel rag—just what you said at home South."

"U—T—Some Black Republican has just been stoning you. That flag's all right."

"Right—I tell you, the desecration to pay for men that rate such as that. Look over the other corner, on that ash pole. That's the kind of flag I want, with all the stars and stripes."

"U—T—that's what's that? Well, ain't ours right?"

"U—Right! They are, and we're stars and dots—just what I tell you I won't go that. Why they know it all over the country, and State, and it's turning over lots of money for us to do, but they were very careful not to mention the little difference that the treasure thus lavished was employed to preserve our existence as a nation against a Democratic rebellion. For the bold and unscrupulous, living, command us as a rampant, unscrupulous Democratic stepper."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AGENTS WANTED.

OUR RULERS AND OUR RIGHTS;

Ordinances of the United States Government.

At the time now.

JUDGE WILLIS.

What's that? What's that? Well, isn't ours right?"

"U—T—that's just one rebel about it; it's a Seymour and Blair banner; we'll take it up everywhere."

"U—Don't care if they do, I say it's a d—d rebel rag—just what you said at home South."

"U—T—Some Black Republican has just been stoning you. That flag's all right."

"Right—I tell you, the desecration to pay for men that rate such as that. Look over the other corner, on that ash pole. That's the kind of flag I want, with all the stars and stripes."

"U—T—that's what's that? Well, ain't ours right?"

"U—Right! They are, and we're stars and dots—just what I tell you I won't go that. Why they know it all over the country, and State, and it's turning over lots of money for us to do, but they were very careful not to mention the little difference that the treasure thus lavished was employed to preserve our existence as a nation against a Democratic rebellion. For the bold and unscrupulous, living, command us as a rampant, unscrupulous Democratic stepper."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OUR RULERS AND OUR RIGHTS;

Ordinances of the United States Government.

At the time now.

JUDGE WILLIS.

What's that? What's that? Well, isn't ours right?"

"U—T—that's just one rebel about it; it's a Seymour and Blair banner; we'll take it up everywhere."

"U—Don't care if they do, I say it's a d—d rebel rag—just what you said at home South."

"U—T—Some Black Republican has just been stoning you. That flag's all right."

"Right—I tell you, the desecration to pay for men that rate such as that. Look over the other corner, on that ash pole. That's the kind of flag I want, with all the stars and stripes."

"U—T—that's what's that? Well, ain't ours right?"

"U—Right! They are, and we're stars and dots—just what I tell you I won't go that. Why they know it all over the country, and State, and it's turning over lots of money for us to do, but they were very careful not to mention the little difference that the treasure thus lavished was employed to preserve our existence as a nation against a Democratic rebellion. For the bold and unscrupulous, living, command us as a rampant, unscrupulous Democratic stepper."

MARRIED.

TEPPET—JOHNSON, on the 27th ult., by Rev. G. A. Adams, Mr. NATHAN TEPPET and Miss ASHIE JOHNSON, all of Perrysburg.

Young Bride! a smile for thee

Her Husband is kind to-day, and we

Will hope as well to-morrow.

BIDS.

WITTLER—Born, 17th, daughter of William and Anna Witller aged 1 year, months and 23 days.

Smooth the hair and close the eyelids.

Let the window-curtains fall,

With a smile upon her face,

Let her children kiss her gently,

As she lies upon the bed,

God hath called her to his bosom

And the little one is dead.

STATE FAIR—PREMIUMS.

Notwithstanding the very unpropitious weather of last week, the Nineteenth Agricultural Fair of Ohio was pre-eminently successful. The total number of entrance tickets sold was 62,741, as follows: First day, 26,208; second, 21,440; third, 26,208; fourth, 21,440; fifth, 5,758. The aggregate receipt from all sources will reach very near $25,000. Among the fair grounds we note the following for this county and vicinity:

Ellis Dermott, Maumee City—second sample sucking stallion edit.

Joe, Major, Perrysburg—second best horse, two years old.

McKenney, Kerr & Co., Maumee City—best grubbing machine.

W. H. Burgess, Maumee City—best one-horse team.

Coleman Keeler, Perrysburg—best sample of tops.

J. L. McMechan, Perrysburg—best half-horse and Harrison pony.

A. H. Bradley, Maumee City—best half-horse of any other variety.

Clifford & Campbell, Perrysburg—best display of paper.

T. T. Moore, Perrysburg—best display of buck gloves and mittens.

Robert McCollay, Perrysburg—second best drag carriage.

Washington Woolen Mills, Maumee City—best pair of stockings, 10 yards square.

MICHAEL & MERRILL, MAUMEE CITY, best plow for general purposes.

W. T. PENNELL, PERRYSBURG, second best sample of spring wheat.

Best sample of clover seed.

James Dunlap, Perrysburg—best half-peck of white beans, dry.

Best six-pence of apples.

Best one-half variety dessert apples, quality to rule.

Best six varieties winter apples, profit.

Second best display of winter apples not less than 30 varieties, grown by amateur, quality to rule.

Best plate of winter pears.

Best display of no less than 20 varieties of pears, grown by amateur, quality to rule.

GO. POWERS & SON, PERRYSBURG, best display of tomatoes in variety and quality.

Best display of sweet corn in variety and quality, green or dry.

Best collection of verbena, named varieties.

Best twelve distinct named varieties of violets.

Best improved new variety of apples, not before described.

Best one variety dessert apples, quality to rule.

Best three varieties of summer and fall peaches.

Second best five plates of market peaches, profit to rule.

Best display of no less than 20 varieties of peaches, grown by a professional, quality to rule.

THE GRAND STREET PROCESSION!!

Of Triumphal Cars, Charlots, Cages, Animal Dancers, Elephants, Camels, &c. Mounted "Grubbers," Horses, Ponies and Spotted Mules, trap'd up never seen a mule like this in the world.

Stream of Gold and Glitter

OVER A MILE LONG.

THIS GRAND CONSOLIDATION WILL EXHIBIT AT

VAST AND MAGNIFICENT!
CLEAR THE WAY FOR THE MASTADON!
Positively the Largest Exhibition in the World!
EMPLOYING NEARLY 400 MEN AND HORSES.
YANKEE ROBINSON'S CONSOLIDATED SHOWS.
THREE GIANTIC EXHIBITIONS,
Under One Immense Pavilion, and Presented to the Public at ONE PRICE OF ADMISSION.

THE FEATURES ARE A GRAND CONSOLIDATION OF MENAGERIE, CIRCUS AND PARISIAN BALLET.

100 YEARS AHEAD
OF THE ERA WE LIVE IN.